

(TMI Newsletter – September 16, 2013)

GEMS FROM THE ARCHIVES

Bob Monroe talks about how human "graduates" are perceived and the purpose of becoming human.

Throughout his decades of out-of-body travels Bob relied heavily on passionate curiosity and rational intellect to aid him in discovering, understanding, and remembering what he learned beyond his humanity, beyond the parameters of life and death.

From "Wednesday with Bob Monroe 3"

(See the link to this video in the notes section below)